DEMOCRATS FAVOR WILSON AND BAKER

FORMER FOR RENOMINATION AND LATTER AS DELEGATE.

EACH TOWNSHIP NAMED STATE REPRESENTATIVE

White Cloud Was Unselfish and Withdrew as Only Fourteen Were to Be Elected for St. Joseph.

The Democratic county convention this afternoon selected the following as the delegates to the state convention in St. Joseph next Tuesday:

Guy C. Clary, Atchison; William Job, Green; L. B. Campbell, Barnard; J. C. Pistole, Hopkins; J. W. Kennedy, Independence; Charles H. Talbott, Hughes; David Flynn, Jackson; J. A. Bliley, Jefferson; C. E. Graham, Lincoln; W. R. Linville, Monroe; Jesse Robertson, Nodaway; L. C. Cook, Polk; A. H. King, Union; J. G. Skidmore, Washington.

Each township delegation selected their delegate to the St. Joseph convention. As there are fifteen townships and only fourteen delegates to be selected, White Cloud township waived their right. The delegates chosen were approved by the convention.

Each delegate was given the right to appoint his alternate in case he could not attend the convention.

The resolutions committee offered the following two endorsements, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolution for Woodrow Wilson.

Be it resolved, that the Democrats of Nodaway county, in convention assembled, that we endorse and approve the management of the affairs of this nation as exemplified and maintained in the administration of the Honorable Woodrow Wilson, Democratic president of the United States. Amidst a world at war, he has preserved the peace of our land without a stain upon the flag. For this reason we particularly endorse and approve his able, statesman-like and patriotic foreign policy, which demands the protection of Americans and American rights, wherever they may be cast. We declare ourselves in favor of his renomination at our national convention and pledge to him the undivided support of our people.

The Baker Resolution.

Knowing that our fellow citizen George B. Baker is in sympathy with the sentiment expressed in our first resolution; and earnestly believing that the Democracy of Nodaway county is entitled to one of the two national delegates from the fourth congressional district, we commend him to the state convention for that place, and request our delegates to use all honorable means to secure his selection.

L. C. Cook, chairman of the resolutions committee, read their report. He said that the committee thought it was only necessary to have a short resolution. No mention was made of the state administration or of Governor Major as a prospective candidate for vice president.

J. L. Hepburn Made Chairman.

J. L. Hepburn of Independence township was elected chairman of the convention and Clyde Perkins of Barnard was elected secretary. Charles McCaffrey made a motion for five men for a resolutions committee of five members. This was amended by S. E. Browne of Hopkins for a man from each township.

John M. Dawson then moved that one man from each township be appointed upon the credentials committee. It was also provided that each township delegation select its own representative upon these committees. All of these motions passed.

The committee on resolutions were: H. E. Bancroft, Atchison; John Tullock, Grant; William Job, Green; W. L. Robb, Hopkins; John Kennedy, Independence; Dan Mowry, Hughes; A. Stoneburner, Jackson; F. L. Lager, Jefferson; Amos Costillo, Lincoln; L. E. Jordan, Monroe; S. H. Williams, Nodaway; L. C. Cook, Polk; J. L. Neal, Union; C. O. Wells, Washington; Sherman Heflin, White Cloud.

The committee on credentials were: Guy C. Clary, Atchison; J. Titus, Grant; Hugh McDonald; Green; W. C. Morehouse, Hopkins; W. E. Johnston, Independence; C. H. Talbott, Hughes; Howard Beedle, Jackson; O. R. Proctor, Jefferson; Ed Graham, Lincoln; A. C. Barber, Monroe; Thomas Tobin, Nodaway; William Blackford, Polk; A. H. King, Union; George Rimel, Washington; A. S. Blagg, White Cloud.

C. H. Talbott of Hughes township made mention of John M. Dawson as a prospective candidate for circuit judge in an address.

The matter of giving Polk township two delegates with a half vote each, the other delegate to be M. E. Ford, was discussed when the proposition was brought up by Dan Baker, a delegate of that township. After discussing the matter and many motions were made, Polk township withdrew their proposition.

The township representatives for the two and a half districts not given yesterday were:

North Independence—J. L. Hepburn, L. A. Nigh, W. E. Johnston.

Washington—G. B. Rimel, Quintin Wilson, Robert Merrigan, W. J. Beggs, J. G. Skidmore and C. O. Wells.

The convention was well attended, every township being represented by a full delegation.

GERMAN AIR CORPS ACTIVE

Little War News From Any Source Today—No Infantry Change at Verdun.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Berlin, March 14.—Accounts of aerial activity took up the greater part of the official report of Germany today. Only infantry fighting was mentioned from West Flanders, where the British are said to have been driven back toward northeast Ypres.

No fighting, not even artillery duels, are reported from the Verdun region. French reports say, however, that violent artillery duels continue there with no change in infantry operations during the night.

Greece Rejects New Demands.

Berlin, March 14.—New demands which were made upon Greece by the entente allies have been rejected by the Athens government, the Overseas agency announced today.

THE UNION PROGRAM

FOR SOCIAL AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SATURDAY NIGHT.

FOR ALL YOUNG PEOPLE

Hearty Welcome to Everyone, Whether Member or Not—B. Y. P. U. May Enter This Week.

The literary and musical program which will be given as a part of the social of the Union of Young People's Societies next Saturday night at the Presbyterian church, was announced by Will Hutchison, vice president and program chairman, today. It follows:

Piano solo, "Impromptu," August Enna—Miss Mary Carpenter.

Reading, "An Inspiring Dishwasher"—Miss Gene Aley.

Vocal solo, "A May Morning," Denza—Miss Bertha Anderson.

Reading, "The Bear Story," Riley—Miss Olivette Godsey.

Intermission.

(Music during social hour by the Dietz sisters.)

Ladies' quartet, "Spring Time," Wooler—Misses Nina Bent, Edna Dietz, Mary Lewis and Mary Rooker. Mrs. Edward W. Gray, accompanist.

Reading, "The Light From Over the Range"—Charles McReynolds.

Vocal solo, "Three for Jack," Weatherly—Vernon Nash.

All Young People Are Invited.

Since the social and program is under the auspices of the three societies composing the Union, the invitation is cordial to all young people of Maryville to attend. Martin Lewis, Jr., social chairman, will have charge of the games and refreshments. He promises a hearty welcome for all and an hour of good time socially in addition to the program. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken for carrying on the work of the Union.

Another feature of the meeting will be the presenting of the papers for signatures for the organization of a Maryville Christian Athletic association. This association is to be formed for the purpose of directing various kinds of inter-church contests and for making a direct and definite attempt to secure a community building along the lines of a Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. combined.

B. Y. P. U. May Enter Union.

A call meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union has been announced for tomorrow night by L. F. Yowell, president, for the purpose of considering membership in the federated cabinet of the Union of Young People's Societies. At the time of the organization of the union, the Rev. L. M. Hale, pastor of the Baptist church, was out of the city, and an adverse decision was made. Mr. Hale is very heartily in favor of their entering the union and has urged such a reconsideration.

Mr. Yowell is the new president for the coming year, and is also strongly in favor of the B. Y. P. U. co-operating with the other societies in federated work. So it seems probable that the fourth society will enter the union cabinet this week. Two offices, that of secretary and charity chairman, are vacant at this time by resignation and removal, and these will be filled by representatives of the B. Y. P. U. if their vote is favorable tomorrow night.

The Christian Endeavor of the Christian church has issued an invitation to the young people's societies to meet with them next Sunday night as their guests. A contest is being held by the Endeavor and unusual interest in the programs being shown. The joint devotional meeting will be held at the regular Endeavor hour, and the young people will return to their own churches for the preaching service.

TO END LATE TODAY

RICHARDSON CASE TO JURY BY 6 O'CLOCK PROBABLY.

DEFENSE THRU AT NOON

Attorneys' Arguments This Afternoon —Self-Defense Chief Plea of Berryman Slayer.

BULLETIN.

The Richardson murder case will go to the jury in St. Joseph some time late this afternoon, according to a long distance message to The Democrat-Forum. The defense closed its case at noon. The afternoon has been taken up with the arguments of attorneys. Self defense has been the leading argument of the attorneys for Richardson.

The line of defense of William Richardson is indicated in the following from this morning's St. Joseph Gazette:

That he killed John E. Berryman in self-defense was the statement made on the witness stand yesterday afternoon by William Richardson, who is on trial before Judge T. F. Ryan of the criminal court, charged with first degree murder.

Richardson spoke in such a low tone that he could not be heard in all parts of the room, and the crowd within the court room pressed as closely as possible around the witness chair.

The defendant answered questions directly and with no attempt at evasion, and apparently he was not shaken in his testimony when plied with questions by Oscar D. McDaniel, prosecuting attorney, who crass questioned for the state.

The following is taken from the account of the trial in last night's News-Press:

The inciting circumstances that probably was responsible for the killing of John E. Berryman by William B. Richardson in an office in the Livestock Exchange, South St. Joseph, Feb. 18, was related during the trial of Richardson in the criminal court this forenoon by Ernest Hahn, a witness for the prosecution.

An hour or so preceding the shooting there was a "scene" between Richardson and Berryman, according to Hahn, who told the following story:

Says Berryman Started It.

"About an hour before we heard about the tragedy, Richardson walked into the office, where Berryman and a man named Vallery and I were. Berryman said to him, 'You keep your nose out of our hog business or I'm going to knock your d—n block off!' Berryman rose from his chair and started to attack Richardson. Vallery and I caught hold of him, but he reached around us and kept trying to kick Richardson in the stomach. Richardson left the room and Berryman tried to follow. We kept hold of him, but he was so strong he dragged us out of the hall, swearing all the time."

Hahn said Richardson appeared to be frightened. Richardson is 65 years old, and Berryman was 44. Berryman was employed by the Drinkard-Sager-Vallery Commission company as a hog salesman and Richardson had a position with the same firm in the cattle department.

Berryman Was Powerful.

Attorneys for the defense made considerable of the difference in the ages of the dead man and the accused, and of the fact that Berryman weighed over 200 pounds, and was very strong physically. The witness Garrow admitted on cross-examination that Berryman had been strong enough to drag both C. A. Vallery and Hahn out of the office and into the hall, when they were seeking to restrain him from renewing his attack on Richardson.

After Richardson left, Garrow said, Berryman went into his private office and dictated letters to his stenographer. He let off this work to join Richardson in "the little room."

The State Rests Case.

Attorney Blagg of the defense then made his opening statement to the jury, saying in effect that he expected to make out a strong case of self-defense for his client. He spoke of Richardson's advanced age, of the fact that both hands are crippled, and that he met with an accident at the stock yards several years ago, in which he suffered a broken leg.

The trial jury comprises the following named: Harley Lester, Dennis Birkhead, J. H. Alders, John Christ, P. C. Bone, O. M. Turner, C. E. Bastian, E. R. Redfern, Allen R. Jamison, Calvin B. Smith, W. M. Finney and T. T. Decker.

THOSE COMING HERE

G. O. P. DELEGATES FROM COUNTIES OF DISTRICT.

BIG SPEAKERS ON LIST

L. M. Shaw, W. S. Dickey, C. D. Morris and Other Candidates Will Address Republicans.

The Republicans of the Fourth Congressional district will meet in Maryville Thursday to select two delegates from this district to the Republican National Convention at Chicago June 7. Many prominent Republicans are expected and the main speakers of the day will be L. M. Shaw, formerly governor of Iowa, and also a member of the cabinet of former President Roosevelt. Walter S. Dickey, candidate for the United States Senate, C. D Morris, candidate for governor, Jacob L. Babler, chairman of the Republican State Committee, will also be in attendance.

Many Republicans from St. Joseph and other places over the district will be here. The visitors will be entertained at luncheon on that day at the Elks club by the local Republicans. The convention will be held in the Empire theatre. Speeches will be made and the selection of the delegates will come up.

The delegates from Buchanan county to the convention here Thursday are F. M. Lemmon, C. D. Morris, W. D. Webb, H. G. Getchell, G. L. Zwick J. A. Duncan, Jr., James Thomas, W. Evans Smith, W. M. Robertson, Melvin Onstot, A. C. Grace, W. H. Kueker Dr. J. R. A. Crossland, M. Tomlinson W. A. Bodenhausen, J. A. Saunders, W. D. Bush, W. S. Willard, Carroll Connett, J. D. Clark, C. F. Ogden George K. Gilpin, J. D. McNeeley George C. Toel, E. L. Hart, R. O. Stauber, John E. Dolman and James McKnight.

From Atchison county will come E. N. Raines, J. E. Travis and H. A. Smith of Tarkio, A. A. Warner of Rockport, Frank Bradfield of Fairfax, B. B. Hurst of Blanchard.

The Atchison county convention endorsed E. N. Raines of Tarkio for alternate delegate to the National convention.

Capt. John A. Duncan of St. Joseph, will probably be an applicant as one of the delegates to the Chicago convention.

"All that I want is a Republican sent to this convention who is a Republican," said Captain Duncan. "I don't want anyone sent who is not a straight Republican and who will ball up things like they were four years ago. I would consider it an honor to go, but if I am not chosen I would like to have some other representative Republican sent."

GOOD MISSOURIAN

WAS SENATOR REED'S SPEECH AT MILWAUKEE.

HOW STATE'S MEN VOTED

W. C. Van Cleve Writes of Preparedness and Neutrality Situation in Congress.

(By W. C. Van Cleve.)

During the recent consideration of the preparedness program and the so-called "warning resolutions" the Missouri delegation in both senate and house, as in other states, have not been able to harmonize their views on all occasions. On the essential and fundamental features of the matter of preparedness they have not been far apart, but on the proposition to warn Americans off armed merchant vessels there have been widely divergent views.

When the latter question was up in the house, three Democrats and the two Republicans voted against laying the McLemore resolution on the table while the remaining members of the delegation voted as the president had desired. On the simple question, however, shorn of its diplomatic embarrassments, there would have been a still greater division.

When the Gore resolution was up in the senate both Senators Stone and Reed voted to table it. Senator Stone had declared his disposition to favor the issuance of such a warning, but would do nothing to embarrass the president in his diplomatic negotiations. Senator Reed has held much the same views as the president and was a warm supporter during the senate controversy because he believed the talk and published reports were being misunderstood and were damaging to the peaceful termination of the diplomatic controversy.

Senator Reed some time ago delivered an address in Milwaukee on the subject of "American neutrality and the violations of international law by belligerent nations" that so pleased the people of that state that Representative Michael E. Burke of Wisconsin secured permission to insert the speech in full in the Congressional Record. It was an able effort and covered the general scope of this country's duty to herself and to the nations at war, and was a vigorous defense of the foreign policies of the United States.

The following epitome of Senator Reed's speech embraces his views in brief on the general subject of pre-

TROOPS CROSSING MEXICAN BORDER

BUT RIGID CENSORSHIP HOLDS BACK PARTICULARS.

TELEGRAPH, TELEPHONE AND ROADS WATCHED

Many Rumors Along Border as to Where Troops Are Going and What Villa is Planning to Do.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, March 14.—The expedition to get Villa starts into Mexico today. The hour of the departure of the made-up column and the direction which it takes will be withheld. The censorship is to be complete in order that the object of the expedition will not be defeated. The war department said that no reports are yet received of the starting column. It was pointed out that none need be made, as Funston and Pershing have authority to do what they please.

General Pershing Leaves El Paso.

El Paso, March 14.—News of the advance of the American troops into Mexico is expected here hourly. General Pershing left El Paso and has taken command at a point of the border where the troops will take the lead in pursuing Villa.

Military authorities have been notified that a bridge near Weatherford, two hundred and fifty feet long, on the Texas Pacific, was burned last night. The Mexicans are suspected. A large force of workmen are at work replacing it so that it will not stop the seven troop trains.

Americans Out of Mexico.

Washington, March 14.—Consul Letcher, at Chihuahua City, cabled the state department that thirty-five Americans were leaving on a special train for the border.

Villa May Take Stand.

El Paso, March 14.—It was reported from a Mexican source this morning that Villa might change his plan of campaign and make a stand against the United States troops at Ojitos. This is a narrow pass and gap in the Sierra Madre mountains west of Chihuahua.

More Rigid Censorship Imposed.

San Antonio, March 14.—General Funston today ordered a more rigid censorship established at Columbus. He ordered Pershing to take charge of all the telegraph offices and to guard all telephone lines. All automobiles must be watched also. This action is taken to prevent any knowledge of the troops' movements from becoming known.

Carranza Avoiding Demonstrations.

Queetero, March 14.—President Carranza last night instructed all civil and military authorities in all the states of Mexico to give every possible protection to Americans. The demonstration which was planned here was prohibited by his orders.

Carranza Moving Troops South.

Douglas, Ariz., March 14.—Carranza troops are being withdrawn from the border today. They left the garrison Agua Prieta and marched southward this morning. Similar retirements are reported at points all along the border.

Funston Headquarters at Houston.

Washington, March 14.—General Funston has notified the war department that he has established a wireless station at Fort Sam Houston, and will direct the campaign from there.

El Paso, March 14.—The Juarez race track will be closed immediately. It is reported that the United States troops will begin crossing from Columbus tomorrow.

A report at San Antonio is to the effect that 1,500 American soldiers have crossed the border into Mexico under "somewhere orders." Villa outlaws have opened guerilla warfare along the border of the El Paso district, and that Texas rangers have captured a band of eight.

paredness and neutrality and may be read with interest:

Our Foreign Policy.

Our nation is hampered in its foreign policy by three classes of citizens:

First. A small percentage of our foreign born citizens who are more attached to the land of their birth than to the land which gave them liberty, education, and opportunity for advancement. However, these extremists do not at all represent the great body of our foreign born population, who have steadfastly remained loyal.

Second. Advocates of "peace at any price." This doctrine makes for war, not for peace. Once we are regarded as a nation of cowards we will be compelled to fight for existence.

Third. Demagogues who are willing to embroil us in a foreign war if they can thereby gain temporary political advantage.

Preparedness.

We should approach the consideration of preparedness calmly, dispassionately. There is no occasion for hysteria or panic or for that haste which is begotten of fear.

As long as the European war lasts the central powers can not get to us, because the allies have enmeshed them in a net of steel.

The allies can not withdraw their fleets to use against us, for in that event Germany's fleet would destroy and ravish their coasts.

Japan could not land an army here. Her fleet is inferior to that of the United States.

We have abundance of time to develop a plan under which this government can achieve a position so powerful as to withstand all assaults.

Citizen Soldiers.

This country must depend upon the ability of its citizens to defend themselves rather than upon a professional military class. I am opposed to the establishment of a great military class or a great standing army. We must place our citizenry in such a condition that they can meet, if need be, on fairly equal terms the professional soldiers of Europe.

American Neutrality.

Our government has maintained a strict neutrality.

The allies have violated our rights by seizing our goods and destroying our shipping. The Germans have sent hundreds of our citizens to the ocean's bottom.

Germany has admitted her guilt and substantially conceded that the United States was right in every contention.

You can trust President Wilson to continue, powerfully, forcefully, and even threateningly, to urge our claims against the allies. Why should any American citizen complain because we have pressed the death claims more vigorously than the property claims?

The United States does not prevent Germany buying goods or munitions here. She is still free to buy, but England prevents her from taking them across the ocean.

Our German-American Citizens.

Germany has always been our friend. She was friendly toward us when our nation was engulfed in the great civil war. We have thousands of German and Austrian citizens. They are law abiding, God fearing, industrious, frugal and patriotic. Wholesale aspersions upon them are without justification or excuse.

We Must Stand United.

If we are to escape the manifold dangers that now surround us and emerge triumphant it is essential that the world should be given to know that back of the demands of the president there is massed 100,000,000 loyal people ready to sacrifice the last drop of blood and the last dollar of money to vindicate national rights and national honor.

URGENT NEED FOR UNITING, SAID REPUBLICANS.

And Apportionment Was Made on Vote 6 Years Ago—List of Township Delegates.

The urgent need felt by the Republicans that the G. O. P. and the Bull Moosers should get together breathed through all the speeches of the Republican convention. Chairman W. L. Moorhead, in taking the chair, urged the men to take the work of the convention very seriously, for the men elected in the county meeting elect the national representatives who in turn nominate a president.

"And there is need," said the chairman, "that a man be nominated upon whom both branches of the party may unite for victory." Merrill E. Otis spoke at length on the same need. And an interesting official recognition of the welcoming "little Teddys" back into the fold was the fact that the basis of delegates were placed upon the vote for John Kennish for supreme judge in 1910, six years ago.

The following are the Republican township delegates chosen Saturday who attended the meeting held in Maryville yesterday:

Hopkins—Henry Russell, Willis Oxley, L. C. Forman, George B. Ulmer, James Ulmer, Arch McMaster and William Wells.

Independence—W. A. Spoonemore, A. J. Roof, Charles Simmons, Lloyd Reddick and William Stickles.

THE GREAT KIDNEY MEDICINE FULFILLS ITS MISSION

I was afflicted with Bladder trouble. I suffered such great pain that the doctor had to take my urine. After the doctor had treated me for two weeks, I did not get any better. Remembering that a few doses of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root completely relieved my mother-in-law, after all the doctors who were called on her case had failed to do her any good, I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Swamp-Root, which he did, and I took it and threw the doctors' preparations away, because immediately after I started taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I was greatly relieved. My husband was so pleased he said I should take one dozen bottles of Swamp-Root, but by the time I had taken seven bottles I was completely restored to health. That was six years ago, and I have not taken any medicine since. My weight is 195 pounds, have three children, do my own work in a house of twelve rooms, and keep boarders.

Very truly yours,
MRS. ANNIE BAUGHMAN,
657 Newell St., Barberton, Ohio.

Personally appeared before me this 19th day of December, 1914, Mrs. Annie Baughman, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

THRU BRIDGE WITH ENGINE

L. D. Young had a narrow escape from death Friday as he was driving a traction engine from the Bliby ranch to Quitman. When about one mile from the ranch as he was crossing the county bridge, the bridge gave way and plunged the engine into the creek, sixteen feet below.

Mr. Young does not remember just what happened, whether he jumped or not. He received several severe cuts on the right leg, presumably from a broken timber from the bridge, and was considerably bruised. The engine turned over.

The tractor was not moved until yesterday when, with the aid of blocks and an improvised derrick, it was lifted back to the road. The bridge was completely demolished.
